Title: My dear Isabella

Isabella,

Although our love has long grown cold and we both have moved on with our lives, I will consider you a friend. I hope you see me as the same.
I am in need of help and have not been able to find assistance.

I have run afoul of a gypsy. She has cursed the animals near my farm and not only endangered my livelihood, but also the lives of my family and myself.

I have been to Jhelom and been ignored, I have been to Moonglow with no results to show... so now I come to you.

Your inn is popular with heroes and paladins, do you know anyone that could help me?

You know where my farm is, we played there as children...

please, if you know anyone... send them there.

I am off to Britain, maybe the King will assist me...

Forever bound in first love,

Jacob Hanton
